

DGS Names New Executive Committee for 2012

DENVER – February 14, 2012 – Davis Graham & Stubbs LLP has appointed its 2012 Executive Committee, which provides leadership for the firm's financial and strategic management. The eight member committee is led by the firm's managing partner Chris Richardson and includes two partners from each of the firm's three departments as well as the firm's executive director.

The members of the 2012 Executive Committee are:

Chris Richardson	Managing Partner
Kristin Lentz	Finance & Acquisitions
Ron Levine	Finance & Acquisitions
Bill Duffy	Natural Resources
Randy Hubbard	Natural Resources
Jeff Pilkington	Trial
Andrea Wang	Trial
Barbara Pierce	Executive Director

This year's Executive Committee includes two new members from the next generation of the firm's leadership. The new members are Andrea Wang, a partner and experienced litigator who counsels clients at the pre-trial, trial, and appellate levels, and Kristin Lentz, a partner who specializes in acquisitions, corporate finance, and securities offerings for public and private companies.

"The Executive Committee has a significant amount of responsibility for the direction and administration of our business affairs," said Chris Richardson. "Becoming a member of the committee helps develop new leaders at the firm and I am looking forward to the talents each of them brings to this task."

About Davis Graham & Stubbs

Davis Graham & Stubbs LLP, one of the Rocky Mountain region's most prominent law firms, enjoys a strong national reputation for its corporate finance, natural resources and energy law practices, with emphasis on securities and M&A transactions, regulatory guidance and complex commercial litigation. For more information about the firm, its practices and lawyers, please visit dgsllaw.com.

###